

BRIDGING THE GAP
BETWEEN RESEARCH
AND PRACTICE
IN THE FIELD OF AGING

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

What is SGS?

The Southern Gerontological Society (SGS) is a network of the South's most respected gerontology professionals, representing 14 southern states and the District of Columbia.

SGS members include educators, practitioners, researchers, health professionals, policy makers, students, and other community members. The mission of SGS is to provide the bridge between research and practice, translating and applying knowledge in the field of aging.

By joining SGS, you will connect into a collegial and supportive network and help enhance alliances which form vital collaborations between members.

SGS annual membership rates, conferences and other information can be found on the website at www.southerngerontologicalsociety.org
